DELIVERY CONTRACTS.

The Illinois Supreme Court Decides That They Are Valid.

CRICAGO, Oct. 15,-The supreme court has just handed down a decision that will be of great interest to cattlemen and others interested in the meat packing industries. In 1890 Pierre Wibaux, who owns a large ranch at Wibaux, Mont., made a contract with Nelson Morristo supply him with all cattle of a certain grade that therewere raised on the Western ranch at a given price. Shortly afterward the price of beef took a sudden drop and Mr. Morris offered Wibaux $25,000 to be released from his contract.

This the ranchman refused and when the fall came on began shipping the cattle by the thousands. When the account ran ap to $10,000 the Chicago packer notified him that he would receive no more shipments, contract or no contract. Then Wibaux began suit. The finding was in his favor for $51,500, but he was decision was again in favor of Wibaux, and in addition he was allowed the interest. Again was an appeal taken, and this time Mr. Wibaux is again sucpay the large court costs which have Agent.

AFTER THE UNION PACIFIC

The Vanderbitts Said to Be Figuring on the Controlling Interest. CHICAGO, Oct. 15,- Ever since the famous traffic contract was made between the Union Pacific and the Chicago and Northwestern railroads, whereas the O. T. Northwestern railroads, whereby the former secured the right to dictate the through rates from the West to with best the market affords. Chicago, and the latter the through & Son. Proprietors, Cross, Ok. on the Union Pacific west of Omaha, rumors have been current that the Vanderbilts would soon secure that the Union Pacific propulation of the Union Pacific west of the full control of the Union Pacific prop-erty. A plan for the reorganization of the Union Pacific is now in course of preparation, and the preliminary steps already taken indicate beyond a doubt that when the Union Pacific gets out of the hands of receivers it will be controlled and operated by the Chicago & Northwestern, which is one of the Vanderbilt roads.
